Did You Know?

DGPFFS is headed by Brigadier General David E. Martin (Ret'd) who has three roles.

As Chief Executive Officer of the Staff of the Non-Public Funds, Canadian Forces, he is responsible for 5,800 employees hired to manage and deliver publicly and non-publicly funded morale and welfare programs and services.

As Managing Director of Non-Public Property (NPP), he has overall operating authority over NPP, which was created under the National Defence Act for the benefit of serving and retired military personnel and their families. Reporting directly to the Chief of the Defence Staff, he provides oversight over the management of non-public property and funds and direction for all activities taking place in the NPP accountability framework across the CF.

As Director General Personnel and Family Support Services (DGPFFS), he is a Level 2 accountable to the Chief of Military Personnel for publicly funded programs and services, including Casualty Support Management, Military Fitness and Military Family Resource Centres.

 Got a photo of you or your family participating in a morale and welfare program? Submit to Stand Easy (StandEasy@cfpsa.com) and you might find it in the next issue.

Interesting Fact:

Funding for DGPFFS programs and services comes from public sources (nearly $88M annually) and non-public sources (over $300M annually with $520M in assets), or a combination of the two.

Supports the Canadian Naval Centennial

Celebrate the Navy's 100th anniversary in style! CANEX, in partnership with the Navy, has designed & introduced a wide range of official merchandise to commemorate the Canadian Naval Centennial. The full selection is available online and in select stores.
